

CUT HIS FRIEND WITH A KNIFE

BLOODY AFFRAY BETWEEN WINE HOUSE DRUMMERS.

They Hail From Buffalo and Spent the Day Visiting the Saloons—Quarreled Over a Trivial Matter on the Street and One Was Painfully Stabbed.

L. Gilmartin and W. R. Peloneis are drummers for a Buffalo wine house. Associates in business they were personal friends up to last evening, and generally managed to take in the same towns at the same time, and to enjoy as much of each other's society as was practicable.

Yesterday morning the two men reached Janesville, and proceeded to make the rounds of the city saloons for the purpose of disposing of their goods. As is customary they imbibed pretty freely with the dealers in ardent spirits, and took a goodly number of orders. By supper time both were considerably under the influence of liquor, and their conduct at the hotel at which they stopped was not altogether exemplary. Supper being over they started out together, one carrying a small sample case. They called at a number of saloons, winked at the bartenders and partook of liquid refreshment. On Milwaukee street they got into a dispute. Peloneis accused Gilmartin of shirking his work and the latter resented the imputation by saying his accuser was a successful imitator of Ananias. Hot words followed, when Gilmartin struck his companion over the head with the sample case which he carried.

Peloneis, already inflamed with liquor, was made frantic by this assault and clinched. They fell together on the sidewalk, when Gilmartin drew a knife and stabbed his antagonist several times about the face and neck. One thrust of the blade came within half an inch of severing the jugular vein of Peloneis, a second, cut a deep gash in his throat, again came near the jugular upon the other side of the prostrate man's throat, and a fourth made an ugly wound upon his forehead. Then the assailant desisted.

The wounded man at once hurried to the People's Drug Store in search of a doctor. Dr. E. F. Woods was hastily summoned, and dressed the wounds which were bleeding profusely. The man's injuries were serious, and dangerously near being fatal. Either of the cuts in the neck would have cost him his life if they had varied as much as half an inch. Fortunately no such result is likely to ensue.

After the stabbing, Gilmartin made a savage attack upon Louis C. Levy, but the latter seized and held him until the arrival of Officer Wallace Cochran upon the scene, who placed the belligerent drummer under arrest. Peloneis was shortly afterwards taken into custody, and the two were compelled to pass the night behind the bars.

This morning Peloneis was suffering much pain from his wounds. As the evidence of guilt on his part was lacking he was released, but Gilmartin was held till 8 o'clock this morning. When arraigned to plead to the information this morning he asked a postponement, and the hearing was set for the 10th named.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the interested parties were brought into court for examination, the charge being assault with intent to do great bodily harm.

Four witnesses were examined, Dr. E. F. Woods testifying that the wound was a bad one, and that serious results might come from it if complications set in.

On motion of District Attorney Jackson the examination was continued till Wednesday, February 8, at 10 o'clock. In default of $500 bail the defendant went to jail.

Mr. Murphy will be assisted in his work in the Capitol City by his son, who was recently here to see his father.

Tonight the Odd Fellows and Daughters of Rebekah, the Masons and the Eastern Star will give a benefit at East Side Odd Fellows' hall to Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Angell, the aged couple who are now lying ill at their home on South Bluff street. The entertainment will consist of a fine literary and musical program, on which the orchestra from the State School for the Blind will furnish several numbers. This company of talented musicians will also furnish music for the dance which will follow the program. There should, and doubtless will be, a large attendance, as the venerable couple are sadly in need of assistance. The admission has been placed at twenty-five cents.

MENACED WITH DYNAMITE.

Citizens of Texarkana, Ark., Held Up a Train Load of Soldiers.

Texarkana, Ark., Feb. 1.—The Tenth United States cavalry (colored) was threatened with annihilation here Tuesday.

Some of the soldiers, while passing through on the way to San Antonio, raised a disturbance in a resort, and when arrests were made secured their release by threatening the constable with their loaded rifles.

The constable called citizens to his aid. A hundred Texarkans assembled at the depot, and by keeping at hand dynamite cartridges ready to hurl under the cars containing the soldiers kept all of the men in their seats.

All the cars were searched, but the escaped prisoners could not be identified, and the train was finally allowed to depart.

Gross Mismanagement Charged.

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 1.—Senator Gwin of New Albany, democrat, Tuesday introduced a resolution calling for an investigation of the Indiana reformatory at Jeffersonville. The resolution was referred to the committee on benevolent institutions. The author says it is reported to him that there has been gross mismanagement and misappropriation of funds in the institution. A. T. Hert is the superintendent.

The house, under a suspension of the rule requiring a bill to be read on three several days, passed a bill dividing the institution known as the "Reform School for Girls and Woman's Prison." Two new institutions are created by the bill—"The Indiana Industrial School for Girls" and "The Woman's Prison."

Honduras Finally Recedes.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The state department has been informed that the president of Honduras has formally recognized Dr. Hunter as United States minister to that country. This is the last chapter in a series of petty diplomatic incidents resulting from the formation and dissolution of the Greater Republic of Central America. The outcome is regarded as abundantly justifying the course of the state department in consistently ignoring these quickly formed unions before they had established a reputation for stability.

New Record in Ice Travel.

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 1.—All records of ice travel on the Yukon have been broken by the recent feat of the mounted police of the northwest territory in bringing a big shipment of mail from Dawson to Skagway in nine days and ten hours. The mail left Dawson on the morning of Jan. 15 and was in Skagway before noon last Tuesday. The record was made by the Canadian officials, it is said, to show that they could greatly reduce the time being made by the United States mail contractors.

RATIFICATION IS STILL IN DOUBT

ADMINISTRATION SUPPORTERS NOT SURE OF SUCCESS.

Report That the Measure Lacks Two Votes of the Number Required—Great Pressure is Being Brought to Bear on the Wavering Ones—Hope is Strong.

Washington, Feb. 1.—[Special]—As the day for the vote on ratification approaches the friends of the peace treaty express greater confidence of success. The only element of weakness is a disposition among a few to concede a little to the opponents of the measure—consenting to the adoption of a resolution declaring the future policy of the United States to be against expansion of territory. Such a resolution, however, would be stultifying, and is not favored by any considerable number of the supporters of the administration. It will certainly not receive the president's sanction save as the dernier resort. One of the declarations proposed by the opponents of the treaty is that the treaty does not commit the United States to any particular policy for the Philippines. This is a rather meaningless proposition, for it would be absolutely without effect on the plans of the administration. It might mislead some foreign government, but on the whole it is believed it would be a harmless resolution. Yet it might lead to a misconception of our foreign policy by some of the powers, and possibly create trouble in the future. Because of this possibility the administration seeks to avoid the declaration, preferring to be left free to act as events shall make it necessary to act.

FEARED THE CAMERAS.

Philippine Natives Were Afraid of American Photograph Apparatus.

Washington, Feb. 1.—[Special]—The report of the two naval officers who made a tour of Luzon was made public today. ## PLUMBERS ARE JUBILANT

Have Been Rushed With Work During the Week

The dealer in coal and wood is not the only happy man. There is one other, gentleman who rubs his hands with pleasure at the sight of the mercury at the bottom of the tube. He is the plumber. There were more frozen water pipes in Janesville this week than the plumber has had the pleasure of repairing for many years past. Water consumers were warned to take some measures for protecting the pipes as the cold increased, but even this did not prevent the pipes bursting in many cases.

Various plumbers in the city, who could be seen long enough between calls state that nearly half the residences in the city where water pipes have been installed suffered some damage. None of them were so badly frozen that the loss will amount in any case over $20 to $25.

ARMY INCREASE BILL MUST PASS

IT MAY BE TACKLED TO AN APPROPRIATION BILL

Its Failure Would Seriously Embarrass the Government, and Resort Will be Had to an Unusual Proceeding—Responsibility Will be Placed Where It Belongs.

Washington, Feb. 1.—[Special]—Efforts are being put forth by officials here to prevent the calling of an extra session of congress. The failure of the bill increasing the strength of the army would render an extra session absolutely certain, and so the old expedient of tacking the provision upon one of the appropriation bills will probably be adopted.

It is absolutely necessary that the army be increased, for without it the government will be unable to maintain its authority in the recently acquired territory. For this reason the administration has determined to carry its point even by a resort to methods of which all do not wholly approve. It would suit the president and his cabinet much better if the measure should pass congress on its own merits, but it, owing to factious and unpatriotic opposition this cannot be, the only course remaining will be adopted, and the anti administration people will be given the alternative of coming into line or taking the responsibility of defeating one of the necessary appropriation bills.

MAKE A CONCESSION.

Administration Senators May Consent to Adoption of Sullivan Resolution.

Washington, Feb. 1, [Special]—The expansionist senators are finding that two more votes are needed to ratify the treaty. ## TURKEYS FLY THROUGH GLASS

Were Probably Excited Over Thought of Being Killed.

Several live turkeys owned by C. E. Brown, the East Milwaukee street butcher, have of late found a home in the adjoining empty store to Mr. Brown's shop. Yesterday these birds must have got wind of the fact that they were soon to die, for without the least warning a half dozen of them made a clean sweep of the whole store, going straight through the large plate glass window that fronts Milwaukee street. The damage to the glass is considerable, the building being the property of the Myers estate.

Further Pleas for Eagan.

Washington, Feb. 1.—There is now no prospect that the record of the court martial in the case of Gen. Eagan will reach the president before the end of this week. Mr. Worthington, counsel for Gen. Eagan, has asked permission of the judge advocate general to file a supplementary brief, or special plea. Although under the old practice of military law, nothing was allowed to intervene between the findings of a court martial and the final reviewing authorities, the practice in recent years has been much more liberal, and Gen. Lieber has notified Mr. Worthington he will hear any additional representations he may make.

To Found an Amish Colony.

Laporte, Ind., Feb. 1.—A dispatch from North Liberty says there will be an exodus of Amish people to that place from Illinois counties. J. C. ### Meeting of Importance Will be Held in Milwaukee Friday.

Janesville promises to be represented Friday in Milwaukee, where over 125 Wisconsin members of the Uniformed rank, Knights of Pythias, will meet to attend the annual brigade assembly. The meeting will be purely of a business nature, and an effort will be made to complete the entire schedule of work in one session.

A special subject which will be brought up at this session is a proposed change in the present plan of dividing the brigade into three regiments, the new plan being to unite the second and third regiments into one, thus dividing the state into an Eastern and Western district. The subject has been under consideration for some time, and the measure will probably be adopted.

SOLONS WORK FOR A BRIEF SEASON

AN ADJOURNMENT TILL MONDAY TAKEN AT NOON.

Senate Adopts a Memorial Asking That United States Senators be Chosen by the People—The Historical Society Building—Reducing the Price for Publishing Tax Lists.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 1.—[Special]—Both houses of the legislature adjourned over to Monday evening after this morning's session, to give the members a chance to prepare bills.

In the senate a memorial to congress was adopted for a constitutional amendment providing for the election of United States senators by the people.

Another memorial was adopted in the same house protesting against the seating of Roberts, the polygamist, in congress.

A joint resolution was concurred in cutting off new business Feb. 17.

The important bills introduced were: Authorizing the sale of the state fair grounds; prohibiting common councils of cities from granting or extending street railway franchises, providing that they must be submitted to a vote of the people.

An interstate fish and game law was introduced by Senator Green.

Another bill provides for the appointment of inspectors of public schools for the deaf, at a salary of $1,500.

Report of the historical library commissioners was presented in both houses. It asks an appropriation of $290,000 to construct a book stack wing and equipment of the complete building. It would make the total net cost about $650,000.

In the Assembly, memorials were received from the county boards of Chippewa and Eau Claire counties asking that the price for advertising tax lists be cut from 25 to 15 cents, and the clerk's fees from 30 to 15 cents.

RAWLINS IS OPPOSED

Utah Senator Speaks Against the Annexation of the Philippine Islands.

They are made the pretext for the emancipation of our freedom, for overriding our constitution, and breaking down the safeguards of our liberty.

The Speaker's Art.

The good speaker is the light-giver. I once asked the late John Stuart Mill as to the qualities of the late Lord Derby, then Lord Stanley. He said: "Lord Stanley is the only young nobleman I know who thinks it necessary to give reasons for the opinions he holds." Logic is the light of speech. John Arthur Roebuck was the most mathematical speaker in parliament in his time. He knew that the shortest distance between one point and another was a straight line, and he took it. Sitting at his table one day, he told me what he was going to say at Salisbury, where at the bishop's request he was to deliver prizes to students. A fortnight later I read a report of his speech in the Times, which, so far as I remember, was word for word what he had said to me. The reason was that the words of a perfect statement are not changeable. If any term can be changed for the better, it means that a wrong word has been used. Thus to a trained mind, understanding is in place of memory. The chosen words recur to the speaker because they are inevitable; none others will express the sense intended.

London Polishers.

No. 11 Queen Victoria street (Mansion house chambers), in the city of London, is situated in no fewer than six parishes, arising from the curious way in which the city parishes run into one another. There are several instances of buildings standing in four or three parishes, and at least one house is half in the city and half beyond its borders. The Bank of England, Threadneedle street, is in three parishes—St. Bartholomew, St. Christopher-le-Stocks and St. Margaret. The city of London, though only one square mile in area, has sixty parishes, none of them of very great dimensions, but some of very small size. The Parish of St. Mary Mounthaw, for instance, which has only six houses in it, is the smallest parish in the city. This parish stands at the corner of Queen Victoria and Friday streets, and has not possessed a church since the great fire of London, in 1666, burned down the one it formerly had.

NEWS FROM NEARBY NEIGHBORHOODS

INCOMINGS AND OUTGOINGS OF ROCK COUNTY PEOPLE.

Gossip of a Personal and Business Character Gleaned By Gazette Reporters in the Garden Spot of Wisconsin Religious and Social Notes.

(THE GAZETTE AGENCY)
W. W. CHAPMAN, Manager.
Milton, Wis., Jan. 31, 1899.

The live hog market here was active and firm last week and the total shipments compare favorably with any week this season, despite the fact that a large percentage of the hogs in this locality have been marketed. The brisk competition among buyers keeps prices well up and operators figure on close margins which enables farmers to secure top values in this market. At the close of the week as high as $3.55 to $3.60 was bid for choice lots and the "half" was freely offered for good stock. The high values on beef are forcing the hog products up and there is little probability of a decline in the near future. The shipments of carload freight for the week were nine cars of hogs by Vincent and Hassenger, four of tobacco by Sovorhill and Porter and one of oats by J. S. Fetherston. Carload in freight included one car by Fetherston, one of coal by Saunders, five of tobacco by Sovorhill and Porter and one of coal by Mansfield.

A Great Clergyman's Idea of a Benefactor

A great clergyman has said: "The earnest physician who saves life and health is the greatest benefactor of his race." We believe this, but we also believe that a great physician becomes still more of a benefactor of the people when he gives his skill, his advice and counsel to the sick without charge. This is precisely what is done by the famous Dr. Greene, of 143 State Street, Chicago, Ill., discoverer of the wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervine blood and nerve remedy, and who is the best known and certainly the most successful physician in this country in curing disease. The sick and those in any way out of health have the privilege of consultation and receiving advice and counsel from this eminent physician without paying a fee. That is, you can write about your case and receive carefully considered advice and information in regard to your complaints of any kind. He uses only harmless vegetable remedies in his treatment of diseases, and it is by means of these wonderful health giving medicines that he is enabled to make the marvelous and astonishing cures which have made his name a household word all over the United States. Write to him at once, for this is certainly your great opportunity to be cured.

An Honest Medicine for La Grippe

George W. Waitt, of South Gardiner, Me., says: "I have had the worst cough, cold, chills and grip and have taken lots of trash of no account, but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one 50 cent bottle and the chills, cold and the grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by People's Drug Co., corner Main and Milwaukee streets.

VETERAN OF THE PEN AND SWORD

FORMER JANESVILLE EDITOR NOW BLIND AND INFIRM.

Gen. James A. Bintliff Proved Himself a Capable Wielder of the Two Mightiest Instruments of Civilization—He Talks Interestingly of Past and Passing Events.

Many hereabouts have been personally acquainted with Gen. James A. Bintliff, formerly of The Janesville Gazette, and previously of The Monroe Sentinel. The general, at an advanced age, and blind, is now a resident of Chicago. A recent letter from that city to the Milwaukee Journal gives an interview with the veteran editor and soldier, which will be read with deep interest. It is as follows:

"How do you do, Gen. Bintliff?" asked the reporter.

"How are you?" responded the gallant old soldier-journalist, Gen. James Bintliff, in his Chicago home. "How is my old friend Dave Rose getting along? I had great hopes of Dave years ago, and I think he should make a good executive of the city. Do you know, when I heard that he was running for mayor, I kept in touch with every phase of the canvass and the election. I think I never had such welcome news as when the telegram brought me word of his election."

The general lives on the outskirts of Chicago, about eight miles from the center of the city. He resides with his daughter, and though his eyesight has gone, the old man can go around the house without assistance. The drum of his right ear is broken, and he sits quite close to his visitor and gets his left ear as near the guest's vocal organ as is possible. His form is bent and he walks with the unsteadiness of age. But if the infirmities of long years have left their corroding mark on his physique, his mental acuteness has in nowise been diminished. He takes interest in Wisconsin and Wisconsin politics.

"Had I been in Wisconsin while the present senatorial campaign is going on, my influence would have been on the side of Joseph V. Quarles. We have been friends for a number of years, and I have watched his progress with great interest. I suppose you don't have as lively times in the senatorial fights as we used to have when Matt Carpenter made a play for the office. There was the most unique character who ever anchored in Wisconsin. I verily believe he was the most brilliant politician in his day and it is not overstating a fact to say that he had more personal influence than any other man in the state. As an orator he was unrivaled and he had the superb faculty of ingratiating himself in the good opinion of all with whom he came in contact. I suppose none of the present senatorial candidates are like him."

The general said that as far back as 1859 he, in conjunction with Edward E. Bryant, bought the Monroe Sentinel. That was a period when state politics were overshadowed by national destiny. The first rumblings of civil strife were beginning to disturb the country. The state papers had to take a positive stand on the question then to the front in national politics and the general, as the editorial writer on The Sentinel, took a very definite stand, and when the time came he put down the pen, though it might have been mightier than the sword, and buckled on his side arms and marched to the fray with the Thirty-seventh Wisconsin volunteers, and for several years passed through the bloody carnage of the bloodiest war that ever people went through. His partner, Edward E. Bryant, also left the editorial sanctum, and procured a commission in the Third Wisconsin, but the soldier boys did not like him and some threats were made to do him to death. Gen. Bintliff, on hearing the predicament of his former partner, went to Madison and got him appointed regimental adjutant, and he afterwards advanced to corps adjutant.

The general asked about ex-Gov. Peck and told a story of the author of Peck's Bad Boy. He said when the former governor was clerk in the assembly, the great Chicago fire occurred. A part of lower Wisconsin was burned. The member who represented this district was going over the ground after the fire. Somehow he contracted a chill and Mr. Peck, in the absence of a doctor, advised him to wrap himself in a blanket and sit over a log fire and take a sweat. The legislator was innocent and thereafter he was always dubbed the member from the burned district.

In 1864, Mr. Bintliff says, he returned to Wisconsin from the war and got a controlling interest in the Janesville Gazette, and thereafter for a number of years he was actively engaged in politics and newspaper work. He subsequently lived in Darlington.

Before the reporter left, the general said that he had not many years to live, and that the dearest wish of his declining years was that he might end his days on Wisconsin soil. But an inscrutable destiny decreed otherwise. His daughter's husband had been killed on a railroad, he said, so that he lives with her now in order to make it easier for her. The general is bordering on 80 years of age.

ATTORNEY A. S. Douglas, of Monroe, was in the city yesterday appearing before Judge Bennett, of the circuit court, for the purpose of securing a decree of divorce for Rachael Lieberman from Isaac Lieberman, on the ground of desertion. She is a sister to Mrs. Sam Ladin, of Monroe. The parties resided at New Glarus.

DANCED IN FANTASTIC GARB.

Annual Masquerade of the N. O. W. Club a Pronounced Success.

The army was thronged last evening with a gay crowd of men and women arrayed in fantastic garb, this occasion being the annual masquerade ball of the N. O. W. club. Those present embraced many of the best people of the city.

The costumes were not very numerous, but were tasteful, and in some cases, surprising. A party of ladies and gentlemen representing Cuba Libre attracted much attention and were loudly applauded. The ladies were Mrs. George Powers of Shopiere, and Miss Maude Sherwood, of this city. Ed. Winslow, who represented "Spain," and George Powers, of Shopiere, "Uncle Sam."

A delegation of ten members of the A. O. U. W., a kindred society was present as day laborers in overalls, checked gingham coats, caps and red handkerchiefs, and no one in the hall had more fun than they. Eight young friends of the N. O. W. club represented a lot of prison birds in their striped suits with huge iron balls chained to their feet. Will Rossow, as a prison guard, had charge of them. They led the grand march, which was one of the most picturesque seen in Janesville for many a day and elicited much admiration.

What were concluded to be the two most comical characters in the hall were two old maids represented by Miss Annie Carrigan and Miss Anna McCue. Their make-up was fine, and they carried out their parts to perfection. Mrs. Ironside, attired in a neat blue fancy costume proved most attractive and deserved special mention.

Smith's orchestra furnished the music, and the entire club consisting of Fred H. Koebelin, Will J. Hemming, Louis V. Paul, Charles B. Barnard, Will A. Rossow and Arthur C. Jenkins, acted as the committee of arrangements, while Messrs. Rossow, Barnard, Koebelin, Hemming and Jenkins cared for the floor in a manner that left nothing to be desired.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN COMING

Promise of an Excellent Performance of a Historic Drama.

Young Bros. "Uncle Tom's Cabin" Co., which appears at the opera house Saturday matinee and night, has an orchestra entirely composed of soloists, under the leadership of Fred Collins, an experienced director. It forms a very agreeable adjunct to the complete performance of this historical drama. During the progress of the play there are many songs, solos, quartettes, dances and other musical specialties, which require a carefully trained and competent orchestra, and it was to meet this want that the present orchestra was engaged. In this way constant daily rehearsals, to the annoyance of performers and musicians are avoided and the patrons of the play are given a smooth and neat performance, the result of careful rehearsal and long practice. The matinee will be at 2:30 p. m. Seats will be on sale Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

GERMANY'S TRUE POSITION.

Ambassador at Washington Makes an Explanation.

IS AN OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

He Declares Emphatically That Germany Has No Intention of Embarrassing the United States in the Philippines—Says Government's Conduct Was Correct.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Dr. Theodore von Holleben, the German ambassador, has accorded an authoritative interview on the relations between the United States and Germany, past and prospective. This is the first authorized interview with Kaiser Wilhelm's representative since the war, and it may be regarded as an official statement of the German attitude. It has a special significance in view of the fact that Ambassador von Holleben is engaged in the negotiation of a new commercial treaty with the United States.

He declares emphatically that Germany has no intention of embarrassing the United States. In the acquisition and government of the Philippines, the American government did not interfere with Germany while the latter was acquiring a foothold in China, and the ambassador says his government is bound to take the same attitude toward the United States in the Philippines.

He admits that German newspapers and individual Germans expressed sympathy for Spain during the war, but he insists that the conduct of his government throughout was correct and should be accepted as the official and the proper attitude of Germany. He explains the action of Admiral von Diederichs at Manila and declares it did not carry hostile intent.

SEVEN KILLED BY SNOWSLIDE.

Roundhouse and Employees of Canadian Pacific Railway Buried.

Vancouver, B. C., Feb. 1.—A terrible disaster occurred Tuesday at Rogers pass, on the line of the Canadian Pacific railway. A snowslide swept away the roundhouse and buried nine employees of the railway. Two were rescued alive. The rest have perished. A gang of men is now engaged in recovering the bodies. The snowslide broke all the wires for half a mile, and at present only one wire is carrying the service messages of the Canadian Pacific Railway company, so that particulars are meager, the only information obtained being that volunteered by the company.

Nerves Weak, Sleepless, and Food Did Her No Good.

"I Found Dr. Greene's Nervura Just What I Needed."

"I Feel Like a New Person, Thanks to the Blessed Dr. Greene's Nervura."

Mrs. Mary J. Williams, 218 Bright St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: "I was afflicted for about fifteen years with heart trouble, my nerves being shattered and I could not sleep at night. I felt I could not go out at all and when I would get up in the morning I was not able to dress myself. I was also troubled with rheumatism, neuralgia and trembling. When I would eat, my food would not digest. I suffered intensely with constipation and was run down so that I was nothing but a skeleton, was nothing but skin and bones. I was not able to do my work. I heard of the wonderful cures performed by Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and concluded to try it, and I found it just what I needed. I commenced taking it and found one bottle did me so much good that I kept on until I had taken five bottles. I feel like a new person, have gained about fifteen pounds since I have taken it, and will just say for the benefit of the suffering to try Dr. Greene's Nervura, the blessed Nervura, for I can never get done praising this wonderful cure."

Dr. Greene's Nervura is the greatest strengthener and restorative ever known. ## THE MARKET REPORT.

Chicago Board of Trade Quotations—Prices for Live Stock.

Chicago, Jan. 31.—Wheat lost all semblance of its late powerful self in course of today's session and closed as limp and weak as if Partridge had been alive and been pounding it all day with millions of shorts. It did not suffer, however, half as much to-day from short selling as it did from the abandonment of long wheat bought ten days ago. One Chicago house alone was estimated to have sold 2,000,000 bushels of wheat in the last fifteen minutes of the session. At the close the price showed a decline for the day of 2 1/2c and by five minutes after the official closing it lost another 1/4c. Corn lost about 1/4c, oats 1/4c, pork 1 1/2c, lard 10c and ribs 7 1/2c.

Chicago Live Stock Markets.

Chicago, Jan. 31.—Moderate receipts of cattle found sale close to the range of Monday's values and a fairly liberal run of sheep went within a shade of prices paid at the start this week, but values for hogs showed a good 10c decline, though the late trade had rather firm tone at the decline, receipts falling about 5,000 head below the morning estimate. The run, estimated at 3,600 cattle, 20,000 hogs and 13,000 sheep, made 18,621 cattle, 57,992 hogs and 28,345 sheep for two days, against 23,928 cattle, 71,151 hogs and 31,818 sheep for same time last week, and 18,286 cattle, 67,432 hogs and 21,205 sheep for the same period last year. Late trade in sheep had weaker tone, the run exceeding expectations, but most of the cattle sold in good time, and late hogs trade had fairly firm tone at the decline.

REAR-END COLLISION.

Forty Persons More or Less Injured by Wreck in Iowa.

Manchester, Iowa, Feb. 1.—A wreck occurred Monday night at Dyersville, eighteen miles east of here, on the Illinois Central, which resulted in injuring about forty persons. The west-bound passenger train was lying at the station and was run into from the rear by a heavily loaded freight train going at almost full speed.

Two Pullman cars were badly injured and one day coach, which was filled with passengers, was completely demolished. It seems almost miraculous that no one was killed. The engine and eight cars of the freight train were badly broken up. Fourteen were seriously injured and are now being cared for at Dyersville. They are as follows:

Leens, James, Alford, Iowa.
Stevens, Mrs. E. Lemars, Iowa.
Krantz, John, Granville, Iowa.
Even, M., Alton, Iowa.
Arens, Frank, Alton, Iowa.

Grapes, Mrs. Fred, Sheldon, Iowa.
Mason, Mrs. William, Cherokee, Iowa.

Treaty Will Be Ratified.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Although Senator Gorman still insists that thirty-two senators will vote against the peace treaty, the impression is growing that it will be ratified at this session. The talk of an extra session of the Fifty-sixth congress has subsided and this is regarded as showing that the administration expects the present senate to ratify the treaty.

A YOUNG MAN'S SUCCESS.

How He Secured Happiness—Hope for Others.

Three years ago I was a wreck of manhood, without ambition, energy or hope. I was a victim of secret vice and the fearful results of the vile habit which so often robs men of manhood and health, renders life a burden, business a failure and marriage a disappointment. I was weak, tired, languid, despondent and nervous, together with other symptoms of that disease of error. I felt that my life was blighted and robbed of all that makes life worth living. My wife, whom I loved fondly, almost sacredly, and whose love was an inspiration to me to achieve the most of life's opportunities, had changed in a year, from a cheerful, hopeful, hearted, happy girl, became discouraged, dissatisfied and careless; disappointment and unhappiness were pictured on her countenance.

I was conscious that my crime, against nature, although done in ignorance and thoughtlessness, was the cause of all my trouble, and I felt like a criminal in hiding, fearing discovery. I was in despair and often wished the cord of life might be broken and I be released from a bondage which was worse than death.

Today I am well and happy, restored to perfect health and vigorous manhood, relieved of all the effects of disease, and experience joys and happiness that I had never before known. My wife has experienced as great a change as myself. She is happy and light-hearted as of yore and our baby boy, now sixteen months old, is a perfect picture of health, and when he plays about his mother's knee I think of him as a bond of love, and health and happiness restored, and my heart swells in grateful thanksgiving to the Giver of all good things that with restored health, I can appreciate the greatest pleasures of life, the most exquisite enjoyments and sweetest embraces such as I believe few men have experienced.

When a man has suffered for many years with a weakness that blights his life, and runs him of all that really makes life worth living, when after years of doctoring with all sorts of advertised remedies and self-styled specialists, he finds a cure that brings back the health and energy that seemed lost forever, he naturally wants his fellow man to know about it and to lift out of bondage the thousands of young, middle-aged, single and married men who are to-day battling with a shattered nervous system as I did. It is for them that I tell this story. While suffering as above, was advised by Rev. H. P. Johnson to consult Dr. J. C. Wood, the celebrated Chicago Specialist. I did so, and he restored me to health and happiness which I could not part with for the wealth of the world. I have asked him to publish this letter for the benefit of others who should seek a cure before it is too late.

I am gratefully yours,

J. C. WOODWIN,

743 Madison St., Chicago, Ill.

Dr. Wood may be consulted free at Hotel Myers, Janesville, Saturday, February 14th; or by mail only. See his advertisement in another column.

LADIES TALKED MISSIONARY WORK

INTERESTING MEETING HELD
THIS AFTERNOON.

Took Place at the South Jackson Street Home of Mrs. W. G. Palmer—Subject Taken Up Was, "Ancestral Worship in China"—Miss Bosworth Will Probably Talk.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon a meeting of the Women's Foreign Mission Circle of Court Street church was called to order at the home of Mrs. W. G. Palmer, 153 South Jackson street.

The subject of discussion by the ladies was: "Ancestral Worship in China," which is a very important topic for discussion, for the reason that it is found a difficult problem by the missionaries to turn their subjects from the worship of their false gods to that of the true God.

This afternoon several very interesting and instructive papers were read on the above subject and among those who took an active part in the meeting were Mesdames Webster, Miller and W. A. Hall.

Miss Sarah Bosworth, who went as a missionary from the local auxiliary to Foo Chow, China, will speak in the early part of March on matters pertaining to her labors as a missionary in that far away land, and her coming will be looked forward to very eagerly by the citizens of Janesville.

Miss Bosworth formerly lived here and has many friends personally interested in her work. She speaks earnestly and seriously of her work.

In 1892 Miss Bosworth went to China to work in the Anglo Chinese college at Foo Chow. The first morning she stepped into the school room and saw before her seventy closely-shaven, round-headed, Chinese boys with "pig tails" all alike and clothed in suits of blue. She thought she would never be able to distinguish any two of those boys apart, but after a time she found them just as interesting as so many American boys with their individualities of character just as distinct and strong as in America. Their ambitions were just as high and their minds as vigorous.

The Anglo-Chinese college is nearly self supporting. It has quite a large tract of land, a large modern dormitory and class rooms with smaller native buildings. There are about three white teachers and about fourteen native teachers. There are 266 students, all but about ten of whom pay their tuition, board and room, about $15 a year. The course of study covers a period of eight years and includes a work in the Chinese classics, Bible study, modern sciences and mathematics and English. English is made a great deal of, as the college was originally started to give the young men instruction in the language that is most intimately connected with progressive ideas. The college is not primarily a religious school, but an opportunity to press home the great truths of Christianity are ever neglected and many students who came only to learn English, have gone away with the gospel in their hearts, and have been the means of bringing many others to Christ.

ENTERED PRISON YESTERDAY

Sheriff's Illness Has Delayed Harding's Trip to Waupun

Benjamin Harding, who was sentenced last week by Judge Efield to two years in the state's prison at Waupun for burglarizing the Washington Barriage saloon on North Main street, was not taken to Waupun till yesterday. Sheriff Appleby has been closely confined to the house of late with the grip, and on this account he was unable to accompany Harding to prison. The prisoner seemed pleased when once under way, and stated that he would rather be at work in the prison shops than lying idle in jail. Turnkey Brown accompanied Harding, returning home on the evening train. Harding's term commences from the time he was sentenced, and not from the time he enters prison.

Dangers of the Grip

The greatest danger from la grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Peoples' Drug Co., corner Main and Milwaukee streets.

Janesville's music loving public are awaiting with eager anticipation the presentation of that beautiful song cycle "In a Persian Garden," February 13, under the auspices of the Musical Literary club. The production will be given in the Congregational church by a strong company, two of the members best known in Janesville being Myron E. Barnes, tenor; and Mrs. Chandler Starr, pianist. ## ARE WARNED TO VACCINATE

State Board of Health Calls the People to Take Precautions

Dr. U. O. B. Wingate, secretary of the state board of health, is revising the printed pamphlet sent by the board to all physicians and local health officers requesting the people of the state to attend carefully to the vaccination of themselves and children as a preventive of contagion from smallpox which now prevails in every state adjoining Wisconsin. Further than this, Dr. Wingate says, the board can do nothing. It cannot order a quarantine against neighboring states as that would shut off all railway communications and seriously hamper business relations.

Dr. Q. C. Sutherland, of this city, is a member of the state board.

NO FOOLS LIKE OLD FOOLS.

Two Octogenarians Quarrel and Air Their Differences.

From the Boston Times: It would have been well if the friends of Friend Ellis, aged 80, and George Alger, aged 79, had appeased the quarrel of these venerable citizens before the matter was permitted to come into the court. It is not a pleasant thing at any time to see an old friendship turned into enmity, and it is infinitely worse when two old men, tottering on the brink of the grave, are allowed to air their senile quarrels for the amusement of the thoughtless. The quarrel might have been, and should have been, composed without any needless publicity. It is possible, as the defendant Alger said in his testimony, that the fight between the two old men began in what in school-boys or apprentices might have been regarded as harmless skylarking. But when canes were flourished and blows struck in a wrangle between two collegians serious consequences are likely to ensue. In this case the jury evidently took the matter seriously, for it awarded $250 to the plaintiff as a solace to his injured feelings. There are no fools like old fools. But the young fools who allow them to ventilate their folly in the courts are even more culpable.

HAVE GONE TO THE BETTER WORLD

OBSEQUIES OF THE LATE MRS.
JOHN HEATH TOMORROW.

They Will Take Place from the Congregational Church and Will be Largely Attended—Mrs. Sarah Hayward Was Greatly Esteemed by All Who Knew Her.

The remains of Mrs. John Heath will arrive here from Winnetka, Ill., tomorrow, and will be interred in Oak Hill cemetery. Friends of the family and former associates of Mr. Heath will come from Winnetka and Baraboo to attend the obsequies, which will take place at the Congregational church, Rev. Mr. Denison, of this city, and Rev. Mr. Dodd, of Winnetka, officiating.

Mrs. Heath was born at Chelsea, Vermont, in December, 1839. Her maiden name was Ellen M. Bliss. She was of a family of four children, all members of which survive her. They are Mrs. J. G. Nichols, of Waterloo, Canada, Franklin S. Bliss, of Rockland, Ill., and M. N. Bliss, of Baraboo, Wis.

She came from Vermont, to Freeport, Ill., in 1862, where she made her home until March 11, 1866, when she was married to John Heath, and came with him to Janesville, where they established their home. One child blessed this union, Mr. A. Heath, now of Chicago, where he is an influential railroad man.

In 1892, Mrs. Heath moved with her husband to their new and beautiful home, at Winnetka, Ill. She has in this community a host of friends, whose sympathy goes out to the bereaved husband and son, and all members of her family.

Mrs. Sarah M. Hayward, several weeks' duration, Mrs. Sarah M. Hayward died last evening at 9:30 o'clock at her Center avenue home. Bright's disease was the cause of her demise.

Sunday she was obliged to take to her bed, and her condition gradually grew worse till the end relieved her suffering. Sarah M. Anderson was born May 17, 1844, and was in the fifty-fifth year of her age. She was married to Edward S. Hayward, November 30, 1864. Mr. Hayward was for years foreman of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company in this city.

Four children are left to mourn her loss. They are Edward P. and Maude L., Mrs. Blanche M. Burdick and Edith S., all of this city. She also leaves an aged father, C. S. Anderson, who has made his home with his daughter for many years.

Deceased was a woman beloved by all and was at all times noted for her kind and jovial disposition.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home, and the interment will be in Oak Hill.

SUIT FOR WAGES CLAIMED

Frank Opitz Sues J. H. Bolte For $25 Alleged To Be Due Him.

The case of Frank Opitz, a farm hand, against J. H. Bolte, a farmer, who resides a few miles from this city, opened this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the municipal court. The case is an appeal one from Justice M. P. Richardson's court, having been tried there several months ago. The suit is brought by Opitz to recover the sum of $25 for labor performed.

James Clifford appeared before Judge Efield this afternoon on the charge of vagrancy, and was sentenced by his honor to tarry several days in the county bastille.

AN ANIMATED POSTAGE STAMP

It Changed the Course of the Drunkard Who Saw It.

There died the other day in Kansas City a man who lost his passion for drink in a peculiar manner. From his youth, says the Star, the man had been an unconscionable tippler. One night several years ago he stumbled into an obscure saloon at midnight, gave his order, and lotted against the bar for support. A man standing near by took from one pocket an addressed envelope, and from another a stamp, which he moistened with his tongue. Instead of adhering to the envelope, as the man intended, the stamp slipped from his fingers and fluttered to the floor. The unconscionable tippler saw it fall and staggered forward to pick it up. Just as he was about to grasp it, the stamp darted in a zig-zag course toward the side wall, like a scared thing. Filled with wonder and astonishment, the drinker drew back and intently watched the bit of paper, which, upon reaching the wall, began to ascend. As it ascended, the tippler's face grew more intent, his body more rigid. He saw nothing but the mysterious, moving thing. His mind was soggy from years of ceaseless drinking. He thought, as thousands of drunkards have thought, and will continue to think, that in some inexplicable way he was doomed; the animated stamp was a warning.

At the top of the wainscoting the stamp stopped, squatted itself as if for a moment's rest before ascending higher, and then, without warning, made a swift dart toward the tippler's haggard face. The trembling sot saw it stop, saw it hesitate, and leap. He was unquestionably doomed if he continued longer to drink to excess; the stamp had been given life to warn him. With a pitiful yell of fear and determination he rushed from the saloon. From that eventful night until he died in prosperous circumstances recently the man never swallowed a drop of liquor.

The moist stamp had fallen upon a rouch's back and stuck there.

BURKE IS DANGEROUSLY ILL

El Caney Hero Suffers Much and Is Without Money

John O. Burke, the veteran soldier, who has been in Uncle Sam's service continuously for the past seventeen years, and of whom The Gazette made an extended mention a few weeks ago, upon his arrival in Janesville from the scene of the late unpleasantness, lies in a very critical condition at his boarding house, No. 12 North Main street, suffering from the effects of a wound in the lungs received in the charge against El Caney, on the 19th day of July last. Mr. Burke is an Odd Fellow, and the members of the local order are taking active steps to help the unfortunate man until he receives from the government his pension, which has recently been granted him at the rate of $42 a month, but which he has not yet received.

Burke is but a mere skeleton, and is a man deserving of assistance.

ORGANIZE BASKET BALL TEAM.

Y. M. C. A. Take In Several of the High School Players.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. of this city, have recently organized a basket ball team, and it promises to be a strong one from the fact that they have taken in several from the high school alumni, who previously played in the high school team. The boys are practicing faithfully, and as soon as they find themselves proficient in the art of the game, a match will be scheduled with the high school team, which will be at no distant date.

The Y. M. C. A. has a business men's class which is meeting twice a week for recreation. This is an excellent opportunity for the business men of the city to spend a few hours each week away from the cares of commercial activity, and all should take advantage of the opportunity offered by the association.

STARK WAS HEAVILY FINED

Evansville Justice Found That He Was Drunk and Careless

Frank Stark, who has been confined in the Rock county jail of late charged with committing an assault at Evansville, was recently tried there, found guilty and fined $10 and costs, or a total of $71.

Stark paid the fine, thus saving himself a three months' sentence to the county jail. He was arrested for the careless driving of a team attached to a lumber wagon, which struck and upset a buggy in which was a Mrs. McCoy and an infant. Stark's companions were drunk and they were found guilty and paid fines.

BIG PROFIT FOR FAST BOAT.

Maine Ship Earns $100,000 Gross Receipts in Fifteen Months.

From the Washington Post: We find in the Lewiston Journal of the 15th instant "the record of a Maine-built ship," which is very pleasant reading, for it furnishes conclusive proof that shipbuilding in the United States is a profitable industry under judicious management. This particular ship is called the Dirigo, and appears to be worthy of her proud name. She was built, the Journal says, by the Sewalls, at Bath, and is the largest steel ship afloat bearing the stars and stripes. It is probable that no steamship in the freight business exclusively has earned so much money in a year as this sailing vessel has placed to the credit of her owners. The record published in the Journal shows that Dirigo left New York for Shanghai on Jan. 9 last with a cargo of general merchandise, which brought in a gross amount of $35,350. After discharging at Shanghai she came across the Pacific in ballast to Puget sound and immediately picked up a coal freight for San Francisco, which added $11,000 more to her receipts. Coal freights paid so well then that the ship made two voyages in the trade. She has just been chartered to load wheat on the Puget sound at 33 shillings 9 pence. She can carry 4,700 tons of cargo, and at this rate the gross receipts for the voyage to Europe will be $38,070. She is a fast boat, but if she should make only an average voyage she will reach Liverpool by April, so that the gross receipts for fifteen months' work will amount to nearly $100,000, about one-half of which will be profit. Our Lewiston contemporary finds in these figures an ample exposition of the reason why Arthur Sewall, "the Bath shipbuilder and the owner of the Dirigo, goes right along building sailing ships, while less enterprising capitalists have bewailed their decadence and bought lots in Lonesomeville at 2 per cent."

STATE BALL LEAGUE NOW BEING TALKED

THE BOWER CITY INCLUDED IN THE LIST.

Meeting Will Soon be Held. Probably at Fond du Lac, When Definite Arrangements Will be Made—Several Business Men Promise to Back a Local Club.

This city may be made lively the coming summer by being included in a state baseball league that is now assuming form in the badger state. Several prominent business men of the city have at different times made the suggestion that they were willing to look after the financial end of it in case Janesville saw fit to put a team in the field this season.

A meeting is soon to be held, probably at Fond du Lac, at which representatives from a dozen of the leading towns in the eastern, central and southern part of the state will be present and talk the matter over.

The proposed league will not be on the plan of the league here in 1891, as to organize on the basis of the old one would be to kill it at the start. In those days salaries were paid the players that even minor leagues like the western association cannot stand. It was a matter of rivalry between three or four cities at that time and there were a few wealthy men behind the teams, so the cost cut no figure. Now it is proposed to organize a league upon purely business principles, and live within the means of all the owners of the clubs, or to equalize matters so that there would be no danger of a break-up before the season is half over.

Inquiries among the most prominent baseball men in the various Wisconsin cities shows that the feeling is in favor of a league. It is the general opinion that a league with such cities as Fond du Lac, Oshkosh, Neenah, and Manish, Green Bay, Manitowoc, Seeboyan and possibly Racine or Waupun, would be a success. A small salary limit with the number of salaried players limited is favored. It is intended to call a meeting at a central point within a short time, and then steps will be taken to form the proposed league. Fond du Lac has been suggested by three or four as a good place to hold the meeting and it is possible that the conference will be scheduled for that place.

Manitowoc, Sheboygan, Janesville, Appleton and other cities have written letters in favor of such a league, but Racine has not been heard from.

CHAPTER II.

Now, I did not intend provoking her by so much as a word. I do not like hysterical women, whom I don't know how to address. I even thought this poor girl no longer attractive. But she bewildered me by speaking first herself. "You are surprised I should choose to go with you."

"No; I thought it simply bravado," I said again with some spirit, I think. "You read me well. It was that I wanted to tell you again how wrong you are."

"I have every reason to expect that of you, Miss Essex."

"I hate this situation."

"Neither of us has cause to be glad at the way chance has involved us," said I, bent on showing a Roland for her Oliver.

"And yet, Mr. Sedley," she had not before in the adventure called me by my name. "I must acknowledge to you, because I would be fair, that you have a right to your opinions—that you take your choice. You must not think I am altogether unfair."

I leaned on the oar. The little Essex was apologetic—for her nerves, and then I pitied her.

"I understand perfectly the circumstances."

"Oh, I'm not glad," she cried. "I hate the situation, as I have said, but I would not block Harriet Ackland because of my prejudice."

"You were unselfish."

For some moments she was silent, and then, strangely enough, began again.

"Yet I must tell you there are things about you I cannot help admiring, although I have the best reasons for despising your position when you should know better."

"There's small enough ground for admiration," I retorted, lamely enough. She was surprising me with her amends.

"Yes, frankly, there is," said she, "small enough. Yet I'm not such a bigot as not to respect the motive leading you to send me that very considerable note when—when Dick was killed."

"What else could I?"

"Nothing. Yet it modifies one's hate in a degree to know that the person who is wrong is not utterly devoid of feeling."

"I am glad, you have found that out," I said, rather feelingly.

But she appeared bound not to leave me conceited, saying resentfully:

"It doesn't matter whether you're glad or sorry."

"I know that only too well."

"How do you know?"

"The nature of the case," said I, "Of course."

A moment after she added:

"I am glad I have had this talk with you, because we both shall feel easier."

"You do not know how much gratitude you put me under," said I, half mockingly, but she thought I was earnest.

"You know you mustn't forget what I think of you."

"I wish I could," said I.

"You must not wish you could."

"How can I help it?"

"Because you know it's a matter of complete indifference to me."

Now, what can you do when a woman takes your witicism in earnest? Why, I kept pretending.

"But it isn't to me; never can be."

"And why shouldn't it be when you know?"

"When I know?" questioned I, half liking the pretense.

"That I know that you have a right to your opinion."

"A gracious concession," said I.

She added after a moment:

"Yes, I'm glad I have had this chance to prove I'm no bigot even if you be traitor."

She went on after a pause which she seemed to give me for chance to frame an answer.

"You must have advanced to be a major."

"General Washington, knew my father."

"Do you remember how I scolded you, whom I had just met, for being a dawdler?"

"It was sweet of you to be interested," said I.

"I was not interested beyond the impatience I always feel at seeing a clever man wasting opportunities."

"I know that," said I; "not that I'm clever."

"I do not know, Mr. Sedley, but that it is strange enough for me to be talking to you in this way. But—but—"

"I appreciate it in you, Miss Essex," said I, now entirely in earnest.

"This terrible battle—so much suffering softens one."

The steady oar mingled with the cry of a night hawk. Something splashed out in the river. The firing had stopped.

"At last we understand each other better," said she.

"I hope so," said I.

"Oh, we must!" said she, almost humbly.

I pulled rather slowly, and found on looking about that Brudenell's boat was around a bend of the river. When I commenced more vigorously, a musket was fired from the forest, the ball grazing her face.

"Into the bottom of the boat! Quick!" I cried. "Down, Miss Essex!"

She obeyed, crouching with admiration at me with a pitiful glance, and yet still blushing.

"Poor boy! You're delirious!"

"I'd wish the delirium to continue forever."

"Stop!" said she. "I must leave you now. Be very quiet, lest you open the wound. Do you hear me, Mr. Philip Sedley?"

"I feel a fool to leave all for you to do."

"You said that once, but you can't help it, sir. Not a bit of your remonstrance avails with me, for I hate you."

"I know."

"Ah, stop!" said she. "We're talking too much. You must be quiet. I wonder if I can get on best by the boat or by following the river bank."

She moved away, while I tried to speak further, but without the strength for it.

Suddenly she returned, standing again by my side.

"I have taken your papers, thinking it safer, lest they fall into the wrong hands."

For a moment she stood there, a strange expression in her dark eyes, and then was gone down the path through the ruddy October bushes.

Trying to rise, then to follow—all the dangers she incurred appearing fearfully—the bandage was loosed, and I felt the warm blood when I put my hand on the place, and the sun seemed swimming through the mist, and again I saw neither sun nor river.

FEAR AMERICAN COMPETITION.

British Trade Papers Giving Much Attention to the Subject.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Consul Halstead of Birmingham, England, reports to the state department that there is a great awakening going on among English manufacturers over the disastrous possibilities of American trade competition. A new trade paper here has met with a most cordial reception, he says, and the new columns of both daily and trade papers are filled with facts about American trade, while the matter is given serious editorial discussion, which in English papers means much more serious consideration than the same editorial space devoted to a like subject in the average American newspaper.

In this week's issue of the particular trade paper referred to Mr. Halstead says that fully twelve 900-word columns are devoted to American trade matters, about one-half taken from the American consular reports.

THE SECRET OF A GOOD DISPOSITION.

Mrs. Pinkham Says a Careful Regard for Bodily Health Makes Women Sweet and Attractive to All.

The world is filled with sweet women who are held back from usefulness by some trouble of the female organs. Fretfulness and nervousness rapidly destroy sweet dispositions.

Sickly all-worn-out women cannot live happy lives. Nearly every woman may be well and happy if she will follow Mrs. Pinkham's advice. See what Mrs. Craig says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and think it is the best medicine for women in the world. I was so weak and nervous that I thought I could not live from one day to the next. I had prolapsus uteri and leucorrhoea, and thought that I would die. I had dragging pains in my back, burning sensation down to my feet, and so many miserable feelings. People said that I looked like a dead woman. Doctors tried to cure me, but failed. I had given up when I heard of the Pinkham medicine. I got a bottle. I did not have much faith in it, but thought I would try it, and it made a new woman of me. I wish I could get every lady in the land to try it, for it did for me what doctors could not do."

—Mrs. SALLIE CRAIG, Baker's Landing, Pa.

That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a safeguard of woman's health is clearly proven by the thousands of letters constantly being received. Here is one from Mrs. W. P. VALENTINE, 566 Ferry Ave., Camden, N. J.:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Before writing to you I felt very bad, had terrible sick headaches, no appetite, gnawing pain in stomach, pain in my back and right side; was tired and nervous, and so weak I could scarcely stand. I was not able to do anything, had sharp pains all through my body. Before I had taken half a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I found myself improving. I continued its use until I had taken four bottles, and felt so well that I did not need to take any more. I am like a new person."

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSON, VA., Dec. 31.

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the female organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH...

HAD MANY VOTES TO SPARE.

Bill to Reorganize the Standing Army Is Passed.

THE MEASURE WAS MODIFIED.

Only Six Republicans Go on Record Against the Act—Some Important Amendments Adopted—Senate Listens to Arguments as to Peace Treaty.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The bill to reorganize and increase the standing army to about 100,000 men, but giving the president authority to reduce the size of infantry companies and cavalry troops to sixty men each, thus fixing a minimum of about 50,000 enlisted men, passed the house Tuesday by a vote of 168 to 125. This was the result of a week of hard and often picturesque fighting on the floor, during the progress of which the opposition compelled those in charge of the measure to give this discretionary authority to the president and to make other modifications, among which was a reduction of 331 in the number of staff officers. In consequence of these modifications the republican opposition practically vanished, and on the final vote but six republicans voted against the bill—Messrs. Barber (Md.), Connolly (Ill.), Loud (Cal.), Johnson (Ind.), McEwan (N. J.) and Wadsworth (N. Y.). This republican defection was, however, almost offset by five members of the political opposition who voted in favor of the bill—Messrs. Berry (Ky.), McClellan (N. Y.), McAlister (Pa.), Taylor (Ala.), Democrats, and Skinner (Pop., N. C.).

Among the important amendments adopted before the vote was taken was one to exclude the appointment of civilians to positions in the engineer corps, one to abolish canteens and the sale of liquor in camps and one to strike out the provision for additional pay for commands serving in the West Indies, the Philippines and Alaska. The amendment of Mr. Cummings of New York to prohibit the use of troops in the several states to suppress riots, etc., except upon the application of the states, was defeated by a large majority. The motion to recommit with instructions to report back the minority substitute only commanded two republican votes and was lost, 117 to 170.

The bill as passed provides, in addition to the general officers and staff departments, for twelve regiments of cavalry of twelve troops each, 144 coast batteries, twenty-four field batteries, thirty regiments of infantry of twelve companies each, a corps of engineers and one regiment of engineers, an ordnance department and a signal corps, the latter with 625 enlisted men. It also gives the president discretion to recruit the organizations serving in Cuba, Porto Rico and the islands of the Pacific in whole or in part from the inhabitants thereof.

The vote upon the passage of the bill resulted 168 to 125 in favor of the measure. The announcement was received with cheers.

Mr. Burton (rep., O.), chairman of the river and harbor committee, called up the river and harbor bill. The house went through the form of going into committee in order to put the river and harbor bill under consideration. The committee then rose and the house at 4:35 p. m. adjourned.

SPEECHES BY BERRY AND PLATT.

Senate Hears Arguments for and Against Ratification.

Washington, Feb. 1.—During almost the entire morning hour Tuesday the senate had under discussion the policy of this country to be pursued in the Philippine Islands. Mr. Berry (Ark.), in a speech upon the resolution offered by Mr. Vest, discussed the policy of expansion without a reference to the constitutional point involved in the Vest resolution. He declared that he would never vote to place upon any people a policy against which Lee fought and against which Jackson gave up his life.

An attempt by Mr. Bacon (Ga.) to secure a vote upon his resolution, which, in brief, declares that the United States government will not make war upon a people seeking for their freedom, participated a lively debate, which was participated in by Mr. Platt (Conn.) and Mr. Teller (Colo.). Mr. Bacon declared he would not vote for the treaty unless some such declaration were adopted by congress. To this Mr. Platt took exception and delivered a speech in which he carefully analyzed the situation which confronts this country in the Philippines. No action on the resolutions was taken.

GRAY URGES RATIFICATION.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Senators Gray and Money occupied the entire executive session of the senate Tuesday in speeches on the peace treaty. Senator Gray, favoring ratification and Senator Money opposing it. Senator Gray did not advocate permanent occupancy of the eastern islands, but said that the duration of our exercise of sovereignty there should be settled in the future and not at present. In reply to a question by Senator Mason he said that he would not attempt to fix a time—that this could be done only after we had had an opportunity to study the situation.

Senator Money attacked the acquisition of the islands as contrary to the spirit of American institutions and as unconstitutional. Senator Mason in a few words endorsed Senator Money's position, as did Senator Hoar.

"Nothing Less than Luzon."

Washington, Feb. 1.—It appears that an erroneous impression has gone abroad respecting the nature of the president's instructions to the American peace commissioners in Paris touching the limitations of the claims to be put forward so far as the Philippines were concerned to the island of Luzon. As a matter of fact, so far from making that island the maximum claim of the Americans, the president's instruction actually placed that island as the minimum claim to be set out. The language was "nothing less than the island of Luzon," instead of "nothing more than the island of Luzon."

Gold as the Base.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Friends of the Hill bill for the reform of the currency intend to make a strong fight for it in the house, although there is no hope of its passing the senate. They hope by a full discussion in the house to break the way for a similar measure in the next congress, when the republicans will be in control of both branches. The purpose of this bill is to commit the government to the gold standard, break "the endless chain" and gradually retire the greenbacks. It does not provide for asset banking.

Final Action on Canal Bill.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Such progress on the Nicaragua canal question was made by the house committee on commerce Tuesday that it is expected final action will be taken at the next meeting of the committee on Friday. The discussion was on Chairman Hepburn's bill, and numerous amendments were proposed with a view to perfecting this bill and making it the one to be finally reported.

Aguinaldo Is After Money.

Washington, Feb. 1.—Aguinaldo has received copies of the official documents showing that Aguinaldo is trying to raise a loan of $2,000,000. It is alleged that he has succeeded in doing so, although it is not said in what country the cash was secured. The bonds carry 6 per cent interest, payable semi-annually. The law authorizing the bond issue gives Aguinaldo permission to issue $3,000,000 of fiat paper money.

Warship Starts for Samoa.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The cruiser Philadelphia sailed Tuesday from San Diego, bound, according to the official announcement, for Samoa, though she will touch en route at Honolulu. According to all calculations she should arrive at Apia about the 1st of March. The Philadelphia is fully equal in offensive power to the combined force of the two warships now in the harbor of Apia.

CATARRH OF STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, but Safe and Effective Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing; headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure of this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate, mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harrison the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diatase, Aspic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that, healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher of 2810, Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Send for little book mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.

WILL LOAN MONEY TO CUBANS

Administration Said to Be Willing to Advance $15,000,000.

REVENUES TO BE MORTGAGED.

President McKinley Wants an Immediate and Friendly Settlement of the Army Question—Mr. Porter Has Started to Confer with Gen. Gomez.

Havana, Feb. 1.—Robert P. Porter, the representative of President McKinley, and Gonzales Quesada, the Cuban commissioner, who recently left Washington on a special mission to Cuba, started Tuesday morning for Caibarien, province of Santa Clara, in order to see Gen. Maximo Gomez.

Mr. Porter's mission to Gen. Gomez is of a twofold character, to discuss with him fully the position of the Cuban army and to invite him to Havana.

The Washington administration desires an immediate and friendly settlement of the Cuban army question. As the military chiefs decisively refuse to accept $3,000,000 in complete satisfaction of the claims of the soldiery, Washington has determined, it is understood, to offer a much larger sum, even as high as $15,000,000, if less will not be accepted. Whatever is agreed upon is to be a charge upon the revenues of the island until it is paid.

The Cubans, civilians and military, are aware that an engagement of this sort may prolong the American occupation, but as it seems to be their earnest wish that the army be paid, a great sum the administration at Washington will yield, it is understood, and open negotiations with this ultimate object.

Mr. Quesada, before starting for Caibarien, said: "A loan of $3,000,000 to pay our army would be entirely inadequate. All the city councils in the island should petition for further loans. The American evacuation of Cuba is a question of months only. With calmness and patience all will end well."

Col. Jose Antonio Gonzales Lanuza, formerly secretary of the Cuban junta in New York and a member of the special Cuban commission that has recently conferred with President McKinley, said today that the result of the commission's trip to Washington was not all that had been hoped for. President McKinley, he said, indicated to the commission his readiness to appropriate $3,000,000 toward the payment of the army, but this sum, he said, would be insufficient.

In the opinion of Col. Lanuza the amount offered would have been much greater "but for the uncertainty as to the Philippine question and the possibility of heavy expenditures there."

QUARLES ELECTED SENATOR.

Wisconsin Man Promises to Treat Members of All Parties Fairly.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 1.—At noon Tuesday both houses of the legislature met in joint session and elected J. V. Quarles United States senator; for Wisconsin in accordance with the nomination made at the republican caucus Monday night. Mr. Quarles received every one of the 110 republican votes cast, and Timothy E. Ryan, the defeated democratic candidate for governor, received the vote of the eight senate democrats. A committee, consisting of Senators Anson, Stout and Kreutzer and Assemblymen Thomas, Farr and Killilea, brought Mr. Quarles before the convention, and he made a short speech of acceptance. In part he said: "I hope the time will never come during my public service when any citizen of Wisconsin, no matter how humble or of whatsoever party, shall hesitate to come and take me by the hand and frankly make known his desires or wishes on any public question."

Though the struggle against Quarles was a plucky one, no bitterness was developed, and no senatorial contest has left as little animosity behind it, considering the keen opposition for support.

Kansas Bank Closes Doors.

Washington, Feb. 1.—The failure of the First National bank of Russell, Kas., is announced by the comptroller of the currency. A statement of the condition of the bank, as shown by the report made to the comptroller of the currency for Dec. 1, 1898, is as follows: Capital, $80,000; surplus and undivided profits, $11,795; circulation, $18,000; due to depositors, $59,350; total resources, $169,145. The bank was placed in the hands of John B. Cunningham, national bank examiner, as temporary receiver.
